Thanks Aaron, I'm forwarding this to their team in hopes it helps them manage the space better.

Subject: El Tejano

Hi Ed,

Brian wanted me to pass along some information/observations to you about El Tejano.

The team has been getting some calls from businesses on Magnolia reporting drunken people in front of their businesses at night. What's been happening I guess, is some patrons from the restaurant have over-served and then escorted out by the security.

It's been a week since the last incident, so hopefully it's calming down. His crew will continue monitoring the situation and keep you posted.

Any questions, let me know.

Thanks,
Aaron
